- Other :

NOTE

The SAMSUNG fab, which has been producing W3100A-LF, decided to obsolete 0.35µm process technology, and would not supply W3100A-LF from 2012. They are now requesting WIZnet to make the LBO (Last Buy Order) by the end of November, 2011.

As a result of this decision from SAMSUNG, WIZnet is obliged to discontinue W3100A-LF and its related modules. However, in order to minimize any loss or problem of our distributors and customers, we will maintain stock and supply the chip and modules for 2 years after issuing this PDN.

We apologize for any inconvenience caused by this discontinuance, and wish you to cooperate with us in preparing the discontinuance without major issues.

LBO (Last Buy Order) to WIZnet

In order to secure enough stock for the next 2 years, we require LBO from distributors.

Please kindly check the forecast of affected parts and issue the LBO as following:

- 1) Last Order Date : October 31st, 2011
- 2) Partial shipment is allowed
- 3) In the LBO, please include the information of Part Number, Total Quantity, and Partial Shipment Schedule (Quantity & Expected Delivery Date)
